

Proposed city school changes

Changes and closings in Pittsburgh Public Schools buildings have been recommended by DeJong Inc., a planning firm hired by the district. The recommendations kick off a period of study.

BUILDING	PROPOSAL	PROPOSED NEW ASSIGNMENT
Arlington PreK-8 Primary Campus	Building closes	Arlington PreK-8 Intermediate Campus
Faison PreK-8 Intermediate Campus	Building closes	Grade 5, Faison Primary; Grades 6-8, Westinghouse
Fulton PreK-5	Building and school close	Fort Pitt PreK-5
Homewood Early Childhood Center	Building closes	New ECC at Belmar
Lincoln K-8 Intermediate Campus	Building (also known as Belmar building) becomes Early Childhood Center	Grade 5 to Lincoln Primary Campus; Grades 6-8 to Westinghouse
Manchester PreK-8	Building and school close	King PreK-8
McCleary Early Childhood Center	Building closes	Arsenal PreK-5 and new Belmar ECC
Montessori PreK-8	Grade levels change	Change from PreK-8 to PreK-5
Morrow PreK-5	Building and school close	Northview PreK-5; Rooney K-8
Oliver High	School closes; building remains open	Oliver students to Langley High; building used for McNaugher, Student Achievement Center
Peabody High	Building and school close	Westinghouse High
Roosevelt PreK-5 Primary Campus	Building closes	Roosevelt PreK-5 Intermediate Campus
Schaeffer K-8 Primary Campus	Building closes	Schaeffer K-8 Intermediate Campus
Schiller 6-8	Building and school close	Classical 6-8
Vann K-5	Building and school close	Miller PreK-5 and Weil PreK-8
Westinghouse High	Grade levels change	Add grades 6-8 from Faison, Lincoln; add Peabody High students
Woolslair K-5	Building and school close	Arsenal PreK-5
McNaugher	Building closes	Oliver building
Student Achievement Center	Building closes	Oliver building